ARTIST-PRINCESS, ONCE FAVORITE OF KINGS, DIES IN DEBT

Fatal Illness of Vilma Parlaghy, Former Painter of Royalty, Stayed Sheriff at Her Door.

ART TREASURES MAY BE SOLD AT AUCTION

End Comes at Her New York House, Where She Resided Virtually Friendless—One Retainer Faithful.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Vilma Parlaghy, known internationally as "the Serene Highness, Princess Lwoff," painter of kings and once the favorite of the former Kaiser of Germany, died in debt and virtually friendless yesterday at her home, on East Thirty-third street. The Sheriff prevented only by her faithful retainer from attaching antiques and art treasures, valued at more than $1,000,000, which filled every room of the brown-stone house.

Only one retainer was with her when she died. Frederick M. Dellas, who in several years has been unable to collect his $500 a month salary as "First Attache and Secretary to Her Highness," remained faithful and had held up the "princess" for two weeks, refusing to let her go to a funeral a few minutes before she died.

She had been ill a year with diabetes, unable to paint the portraits for which she received from $12,000 to $15,000 each. No will was found, and it is likely her treasures will be sold at Sheriff's sale to satisfy the claims of Ludwig Nissen, banker and art lover, of Brooklyn, who holds chattel mortgages aggregating $215,000 on the art objects.

Watchman at House.
The writ of attachment was never served, but Deputy Sheriff Lanman made daily trips to the house, where a watchman was stationed to prevent removal of any property. In a letter of conclusion, before her death the Princess was informed of the creditor's move. She shrugged her weakened shoulders and was seemingly too ill to reply.

Funeral arrangements have been placed in the hands of Metropolitan Platon, Bishop of the Greek Orthodox Catholic Church in New York, of which Mrs. Lwoff and her husband, Prince Lwoff, of Russia, were members.
Dellias moved disconsolately about the ill house today. A few floral offerings were received. He has been secretary to the Princess for 14 years, and he remarked that her death was singularly unnoticed, for he said, his mistress was for many years considered "one of the greatest portrait painters in the world."

He gave her as he 45, and said she had been painting since childhood. More than 300 portraits came from her brush, among them the King of Belgium, the Princess Alexandra and many celebrated Americans, including John Burroughs, Andrew Carnegie, Theodore Roosevelt, Thomas A. Edison and Admiral Dewey. It had been planned to have a "Hall of Fame" of 35 of her portraits of celebrated men on exhibition during Russian week, beginning May 2, at the Ritz-Carlton.

Born of Poor Parents.
The fact she had few intimate friends was attributed to her spectacular means of attracting public notice. Born of poor Magyar parents at Nagy-Norog, Hungary, she showed a talent for art at the age of 14 and studied with such masters as Lombard and Miksa. Before her marriage with Prince Lwoff, she first gained publicity from the dispute of the Kaiser and Hanging Committee of the Berlin Royal Academy, which had ordered portraits of himself and Maximilian of Austria hung in the academy and the committee refused to accede. The Kaiser retaliated by refusing to sanction the annual award to Herr Walder, designer of the Imperial Parliament Palace at Berlin, and decreed it should be given to Mrs. Parlaghy. German artists jeered at the decree but submitted. At other times she received the Austrian jury award and a royal award.

A proof of the design, mounted on cardboard in a black Morocco case and accompanied by the first stamp to be printed, will be given by the Postoffice Department to Mrs. Harding.

HYDE ON WAY TO WASHINGTON TO CONFER WITH COOLIDGE

Understood That Governor's Mission Is to Discuss Politics and Patronage With the President.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 30.—Gov. Hyde left Jefferson City this afternoon for Washington. While no definite announcement has been made, it is understood that he goes to confer with President Coolidge and that matters of politics and patronage, affecting Missouri, are likely to be discussed.

Gov. Hyde talked with the new President at the time of President Harding's funeral. During his absence from the State on that occasion, Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd, acting as Governor, commuted a death sentence with which the Governor had refused to interfere, and the Governor, on his return, made unfavorable comment on this action.

A Coolidge and Hyde movement for next year's presidential and vice presidential nominations, has appeared in Kansas City and elsewhere, but it is understood that Gov. Hyde has deprecated activity in that direction.

SOLDIERS' DEMAND FOR DEATH SENTENCE OBLIGINGLY GRANTED

French Courtmartial Changes Life Term to Gallot after They Strike Superior Officer.

By the Associated Press.
CASABLANCA, Morocco, Aug. 29.—"Death! We want death! Sentence us to death!" shouted two French soldiers, Podelin and Toubou, today, along with a string of invectives they hurled at the courtmartial which has just condemned them to penal servitude for life on charges of insubordination.

The judge ordered them led away but the convicts, across whose foreheads the words "Out of Luck" were tattooed, threw their hats in the face of Col. Juillard, the presiding officer, and again shrieked, "A mort!" They will be guillotined, as the courtmartial obligingly revised its sentence, for "striking a superior officer."

5 YOUTHS TAKEN IN CHASE CONFESS TO 10 ROBBERIES

Admissions Made Following Their Seizure of an Automobile Party's Machine in Carondelet.

MAN WAS SHOT IN ROBBERY OF STORE

Prisoners Admit They Disliked Work, Sought "Easy Money"; Police Term Them "Cuckoo Juniors."

Confessions covering 10 recent robberies, in three of which automobiles were taken from their occupants, were made today by various members of a band of five youths, between 16 and 19 years of age, arrested last night on Delmar boulevard, west of Wendeaver avenue. All five admitted taking part in three robberies, three confessed three previous holdups, and two admitted four other robberies, in some of which they involved the others.

Dislike for work and a desire for "easy money" actuated the youths, some of them say. Because their meeting place, at Eighth and Hickory streets, is in the neighborhood infested by the Cuckoo Gang, the police term them "Cuckoo Juniors."

The five were caught by Detective James Archey and three members of the homicide squad at 10:30 p. m., while the youths were riding in an automobile which they had taken from its occupants in Carondelet Park an hour before, and from which they had not removed a conspicuous dealer's license tag.

Three young men and three young women were sitting in the car. The boys, James Herman, Stoeber, Brown of 5427 Murdock avenue, who had been driving the car, was ordered to get back into the car and start it, and was then put in the car with the others.

Police Recognize Number.
The robbery was at once reported to the police, and the number of the dealer's license on the car was sent to the stations. The homicide squad party had the number when, an hour after the holdup in the park, the detectives saw the car turning into Delmar boulevard. They shouted a command to stop, and their car, pursuing the other, crowded it to the curb. In the short distance of the pursuit the youths threw out two revolvers, which the detectives obtained. One revolver was still in the car when the party was captured.

The youths arrested were: Arthur Smith, 17, of 3441 Robert avenue, driver of the stolen car; George Couch, 18, of 1024 Forest Park avenue, St. Louis County; Harry Baker, 19, of 719 Hickory street; Leonard Bryington, 17, of 921 Hickory street, and Fred Weischen, 16, of 2739 Cass avenue.

The story told later by the prisoners was that, after taking the car in the park, they drove to University City, looking along the way for a store which they might hold up, but that, not seeing a good prospect, they drove to the central part of the city. It was their understanding that, if overtaken by the police, they would throw out their revolvers and give false names. They gave such names when first arrested.

The five admitted that they all robbed Joseph Stabille's saloon at 1709 Union boulevard, taking a revolver and $30 from the proprietor; that they robbed William Guerk in his delicatessen store, 3974 Junata street, the night of Aug. 26, and that Couch shot Guerk after $11 had been taken from him. These robberies were committed while the five were using a borrowed car, which Smith drove.

LANSING, Mich., Aug. 30.—Any person who appears in public in the State of Michigan wearing a mask or any other obstruction which partially conceals the face, is liable to arrest and punishment by from $25 to $100 fine, or 30 days in jail, under the provision of the Burns law, which went into effect in this State at midnight last night.

BULLS DON'T MIND RED FLAGS

California Professor Tells of Results of Tests With Animals.

BERKELEY, Cal., Aug. 30.—The old idea that the color red has the effect of producing fear in a bull is a fallacy, according to Dr. G. M. Stratton of the University of California. After six months of experimenting in which he and his assistants waved flags of all colors before bulls, cows and calves, Dr. Stratton announced that he found the animals interested rather in the motion of the object presented to them than in its color.

TURKS TO MODIFY DRY LAW

From a Staff Correspondent of the Manchester Guardian, Constantinople and the New York Times.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 30.—Pressure to alter the prohibition law is increasing in the Ankara Assembly. Fifty deputies have presented a motion demanding immediate modification in the interest of vine growers and the wine industry, and rushing preparation of the bill.

According to Ankara messages, this will continue to ban consumption of liquor in public and all bars will be kept closed. However, liquor will be sold under Government control, subject to heavy taxes. Only that made in Turkey will be sold.

BOY, 7, STRANGLED, THROWN INTO POOL WITH HANDS TIED

Gagged With Garment Belonging to Baby Sister—Body Was Dragged to the Water.

HAD GONE TO TRY FISH POLE FATHER SENT

Mother Tells Coroner She Knows of No Motive for Murder in Lonely Spot in New York State.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
WINDHAM, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Howard Rothenberg, 7 years old, stopping here with his parents for the summer, went fishing yesterday morning to try out a rod his father sent him. He did not return and a search was begun. At 11 o'clock his body was found in a pool in Batavia Kill, a quarter of a mile from the summer hotel where the family had been staying.

His hands were tied behind his back. He was gagged and had been strangled. The gag was made of a garment belonging to his baby sister. Coroner Claude B. Mulberry, after an inquest, returned a verdict of "sphyxiation due to intentional strangulation by person or persons unknown."

Anna Sobin, 16, of 168 Belmont avenue, Newark, where the Rothenbergs live, was questioned. She told of a quarrel a few days ago between Mrs. Charles Rothenberg of Newark, the boy's mother, and his aunt, Mrs. Esther Litt of 1195 East Tenth street, Brooklyn. But when the Coroner asked Mrs. Rothenberg if she knew of anyone who would have a motive for such an attack, she said no. The sister denied there had been any quarrel.

Charles Rothenberg, a hat manufacturer of Newark, N. J., the boy's father, sent the fishing pole yesterday. Howard left the hotel at 6 o'clock in the morning, and when he had not returned at 8, his mother became worried. At 9 the village fire alarm was sounded and all joined in the search.

INFORMATIONS AGAINST STATE SENATOR TILLMAN ANDERSON

Scott County Man Charged With Larceny of Adding Machine and Typewriter.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
HERMANN, Mo., Aug. 30.—Prosecuting Attorney L. G. Gray today filed two informations in the Gasconade County Circuit Court against State Senator Tillman Anderson of Scott County, one information charging grand larceny of an adding machine, valued at $350, and the other grand larceny of a typewriter, valued at $100, and a dictionary, valued at $20. The articles are said to have been taken from the Capitol at Jefferson City in March, 1923.

The informations are based on affidavits filed with Justice of the Peace C. M. Ellis, at Hermann, Mo., by Harry Woodruff of Jefferson City, commissioner of permanent seat of government.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY IN MARKS

New York Street Seller Realizes $200 on Each Dime Invested.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—German marks, which made a new low record yesterday, dropping to 10 cents a million, were being sold by street vendors at 20 cents for 10,000. One of the vendors, making a profit of 20,000 per cent, had to make several trips to a foreign exchange counter to replenish his supply. Each trip he bought 10 cents' worth—1,000,000—and on each time invested he realized $20. Even Wall Street admitted that was a good margin.

HARDING'S BODY IN SARCOPHAGUS

By the Associated Press.
MARION, O., Aug. 30.—The casket containing the body of the late President Harding was placed in an asphalt sarcophagus, weighing 2600 pounds yesterday. After the sarcophagus was sealed it was placed in the vault in the Marion Cemetery where the body was entombed several weeks ago. Later it will be placed in a mausoleum, which is to be constructed.

GREECE WOULD REFER ITALY'S DEMANDS TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

PINCHOT PROPOSAL WELL RECEIVED BY UNION CONFEREES

Operators Almost Openly Hostile to Compromise Plan Designed to Prevent Coal Strike.

EVERY CONSIDERATION PROMISED BY LEWIS

Ten Per Cent Pay Increase, Eight-Hour Day, Proposed—Belief Is Miners Will Favor Acceptance.

By the Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 30.—The Scale Committee of the Miners' Union met today to pass upon Gov. Pinchot's proposal for settling the anthracite wage controversy without shutting down the mines Sept. 1. They adjourned, however, until tomorrow morning, without framing an answer. John L. Lewis, the union's president, and other officers declared themselves bound to silence by the Governor's request that the union's proposition be first declared to him.

Operators who left for Philadelphia to discuss their attitude towards the peace proposals and Miners' Union representatives alike were apparently being left by the Governor to work out their replies to his tender without any further intervention from him. It was announced during the day that his Friday noon meeting with both sides would be in executive session.

Sharp divergence in opinion on the Governor's proposal was evident. The proposal of a 10 per cent flat increase for anthracite workers, a universal eight-hour day, recognition of the right to have a union agent in the company offices for collection of union dues, which the Governor made with a tender of union recognition and of the principle of collective bargaining, won a friendly reception from the union contingent.

There was a growing impression that Lewis would recommend and his Scale Committee would vote acceptance of the proposal and call in the orders for a suspension of work Sept. 1 if the operators consented.

But among the operators the plan encountered almost open hostility. There was a disposition to consider the measure the cost price increase which would result from the wage increase award. Gov. Pinchot estimated this would amount to 60 cents a ton, of which the operators could absorb 10 cents and the balance would be passed on to the consumer.

He said the remaining 50 cents ought to be saved in transportation and distribution.

Both sides have until Friday noon to file their answer to Gov. Pinchot's proposal. An agreement was reached today between the Policy Committee of the anthracite operators and officials of the miners' union, under which union men employed as pumpmen, engineers and maintenance men will be allowed to stay at work after Sept. 1, even if suspension of mining becomes effective. The men are needed to prevent the mines from flooding and caving in during periods of idleness.

DEMANDS MADE ON GREECE FOR KILLING OF ITALIANS ON BOUNDARY COMMISSION

By Cable to the Post-Dispatch and Chicago Daily News.

ROME, Aug. 30.—The Italian demands on Greece as a result of the assassination of five members of the Grecian-Albanian boundary commission are that: 1. Full official apologies be presented to the Italian Government, the apologies to be delivered by the highest Greek military authority to the Italian legation at Athens.

2. A solemn funeral ceremony for the victims of the murder to be held in the Catholic Cathedral at Athens, all members of the Greek Government being present.

3. The Greek fleet off Piraeus render honors to the Italian flag; the Italian naval squadron to visit Piraeus for the purpose of receiving these honors, which will consist of a salute of 21 guns fired while the Greek fleet flies the Italian flag at the mast-head.

4. A thorough inquiry be held at the site of the massacre by the Greek Government assisted by the Italian military attaché, Col. Perrone, for whose safety the Greek Government is held responsible, five days after the receipt of note being the time given for conducting such inquiry.

5. Capital punishment be meted out to the guilty.

6. An indemnity of 50,000,000 lire be paid within five days after the presentation of the note. (A lire normally is worth 20 cents, but at present exchange is about 4 1-3 cents.)

7. Military honors to be rendered the victim when their bodies are embarked at Preveza on Italian ships for their return to Italy.

By the Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 30.—Confirming reports that he was financially embarrassed, Gov. Warren T. McCray today called a meeting of his creditors to be held here Friday afternoon. The Governor issued a statement declaring that he has assets "based upon fair values" far above his liabilities and asking for "a chance to work myself out of a situation that the economic conditions are responsible for."

Coinciding with the announcement of the call for a meeting of the Governor's creditors came confirmation of the report that he had resigned as president of the Discount and Deposit State Bank at Kentland, Ind., an institution founded by his father in 1874. He was succeeded by Judge William Darrach of Kentland.

The Governor, it is understood, will ask his creditors to either an agreement whereby he will be given time to retrieve his fortunes. Placing of his assets in the hands of a trustee who will operate them for the benefit of his creditors is contemplated as a part of the agreement.

Records at the State Capitol show that the Discount and Deposit Bank has been awarded for deposit $150,000 of State funds by the State Board of Finance. Other records show that, until Aug. 23, $155,000 of funds of the State Board of Agriculture, which handles its money separately from other State departments, was on deposit at the Kentland bank. On Aug. 24 this amount was transferred to the National City Bank of Indianapolis.

ATHENS READY TO INDEMNIFY THE FAMILIES OF 5 ITALIANS

Government Also Willing to Express Profound Sorrow Over Killing of Members of Frontier Commission, but Looks to Geneva in Event of Deadlock.

GRECIAN PREMIER TO ASK FOR MODIFICATION

Italy Has Called for Reply Within 24 Hours and Gonatas Says That This Will Be Forthcoming Within Time Set.

By the Associated Press.
ATHENS, Aug. 30.—It is understood here that Greece is not disposed to accept the conditions imposed by the Italian Government in its note demanding satisfaction for the killing of the five Italian members of the Greco-Albanian Frontier Delimitation Commission.

If a deadlock is reached in settling the affair, Greece, it is further understood, will propose to submit the question to the League of Nations.

The Greek Government is disposed to express its profound sorrow over the killings, and to indemnify the families of the Italian officials who were murdered on Greek territory.

Press Demands Full Inquiry.
The Greek newspapers have received the news of the murders at Janina with much indignation and demand a full inquiry into the incident. They express confidence that an inquiry will prove that the murders were not committed by Greeks and that this fact will remove the possibility of a misunderstanding between Greece and Italy.

The Italian Government has demanded from Greece an answer within 24 hours to a note handed the Greek Government last night, declaring that Greece shall pay an indemnity of 50,000,000 lire, salary the Italian fleet and punish the Greeks responsible for the killing of the five Italian members of the Greco-Italian frontier delimitation mission.

Premier Gonatas told the newspaper men that while all of the demands of the Italian Government were not acceptable, some of them would be agreed to and that the Greek Government would ask modifications of the others. The Premier added that the Government would make reply to the Italians within the time limit set by them.

As an outcome of an exchange of visits between G. C. Montagna, the Italian Minister to Greece, and Foreign Minister Alexandris, the latter, after expressing his Government's regret over the assassinations, said that, with a view to conducting an inquiry, it had been decided to dispatch a warship to Santi Quaranta, one of the ports of Janina, Albania, near where the murders occurred.

Branded as Political Crime.
The warship will take on board a commandant of police, two superior officers of the Department of Military Police and two police surgeons who will aid in the investigation.

The secretary of the Italian legation, speaking in the name of Signor Montagna last night, said the murder of the Italian mission was a political crime, due to Greek hatred of Italians, which was to be excluded.

Apart from the repatriation which would be demanded, the secretary said the crime would have the greatest consequences for Greece. Premier Gonatas said that, according to reports received from the authorities at Elpiria, he had continued on Page 2, Column 2.

The Governor's proposal for a wage increase was based on the calculation that 10 per cent would add

60 cents a ton to the cost of mining coal and that the operators, aided by unusual profits in recent months, could absorb 10 cents a ton of this amount. The remaining 50 cents per ton, he said, "in the end should not be taken from the consumer."

He promised to make proposals later for absorbing this in the cost of transporting and distributing coal.

The employers' repeated tenders of arbitration to settle all details of the controversy he set aside. He suggested that the wage and working arrangement be proposed, be made effective for not less than one year.

Two or three times while addressing the miners and operators Pinchot broke away from the text of his prepared address.

"I'm speaking to both sides at this table," he admonished when he spoke of their hostilities establishing in the public mind "a bitter and lasting resentment."

In another strain, he thanked them for "confidential treatment" of his previous communications and asked them to exercise the same secrecy in their deliberations between now and Friday.

"Your excellency, in behalf of the United Mine Workers, I promise that every consideration will be given to your proposals," Lewis said at the conclusion, "and we shall meet you again Friday."

"We do the same," said Samuel D. Warriner, spokesman for the operators, "and meet you at that time."

Pinchot's Address.

The Governor's address follows, in part:

"My justification for proposing a basis upon which I believe this strike can be prevented with justice to all parties is threefold:

"First, this controversy has continued until all chance of agreement by direct negotiations between the miners and operators has been lost."

"Second, the interest of the miners, the operators, and the public, all require that this controversy shall be settled without a strike."

"Third, the public is entitled to a voice in the discussion and the rights of the people generally deserve consideration at least as much as those of the miners and the operators."

"Under such circumstances, and in a case where the public welfare so urgently requires protection, the people have the clear and unquestionable right to demand a settlement."

"Both miners and operators have laid the essential points of their positions fully before me. I have at hand the stores of information collected by the Pennsylvania Department of Mines and Department of Labor and Industry, and I have consulted many men representing the widest variety of knowledge and experience in the anthracite field. All the facts collected by the United States Coal Commission have been most generously placed at my disposal. Its principal experts have come to Harrisburg, and many other experts also, so that nearly all of the specialists in America who are best informed upon the facts concerned in the present controversy were assembled in the State Capitol."

Governor's Proposals.

"I recommend the following basis of settlement, with the understanding that all questions concerning it, or not covered by it, shall be referred to the joint conference of Scale Committee, and that the anthracite Conciliation Board shall determine any questions upon which the joint conference cannot agree."

"Recognition of the basic eight-hour day for all employees. If longer hours are necessary at certain times, or in certain occupations, the overtime to be paid for at the eight-hour rate."

"A uniform increase of 10 per cent to all employees, to take effect Sept. 1."

"Full recognition of the union by the operators, without the check-off, but with the right to have a union representative present when the men are paid. I do not regard the question of open or closed shop as at issue in this controversy."

"Complete recognition of the principle of collective bargaining."

"I suggest, as a means of avoiding or settling differences that if on the course of collective bargaining the Scale Committee of miners and operators are unable to agree, they shall select a man agreeable to both sides to attend and take part in their discussions but without a vote, and not as umpire or referee. If they are still unable to agree, their differences shall be referred to the Conciliation Board, which shall be provided with whatever equipment is necessary for rendering prompt decisions."

Operators Can Stand Part of Cost.

"I am strongly of the opinion that an agreement, signed on the foregoing basis, should cover not less than one year."

"The whole body of wage rates in the anthracite field, antiquated, haphazard and honeycombed with inequality, it needs revision. I suggest that the anthracite conciliation board be authorized by the joint wage scale committee to undertake and complete within a year a thorough revision and for that purpose be supplied with the necessary help."

"The proposed increase of 10 per cent is recommended in view of the high degree of skill required among the miners and the extra hazardous nature of the occupation. Several hundred workers are killed and 20,000 are injured each year."

Consumers Shouldn't Pay It.

"The remaining 10 cents per ton should not, in the end, be taken from the consumer. The whole of it can easily and properly be taken out of the cost of transportation and distribution."

"Anthracite mines vary in the cost of producing coal. A very considerable percentage of the mines could bear at least half of the increase of 60 cents a ton and still run at a fair profit. Others, operating on a smaller margin, might be forced to close down if the cost of production were raised even by a much smaller amount. To decrease the margins at the mines more than 10 cents a ton now might unduly reduce production. It is to the public interest that bins be filled for the winter and that factories continue to operate. When production is assured, I intend to recommend constructive plans that will, I am confident, prevent any part of this increase of 60 cents a ton from going to the consumer."

Railroad Uses River Water.

By the Associated Press.
GALESBURG, Ill., Aug. 20.—Because of a water shortage here, the Burlington Railroad is hauling water from the Mississippi River at Gladstone. Local officials state that in a day or two regular water trains will be run to the Mississippi each day to supply the needs of this division point.

SCIENCE ROBS CALOMEL OF NAUSEA AND DANGER

Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Perfect Tablets Called "Calotabs."

The triumph of scientific pharmacy is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "Calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles, calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab on the tongue at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Genuine Calotabs are sold only in trade-marked packages, price ten cents and thirty-five cents. Your druggist offers to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs.

FEDERAL PRICE FIXING DESCRIBED AS 'SNARE'

Head of American Cotton Growers' Exchange Addresses Missouri Farmers.

By the Associated Press.
SEDALIA, Mo., Aug. 20.—Governmental price fixing for farmers is a delusion and a snare, Earl Williams, president of the American Cotton Growers' Exchange, said in an address last night at the annual convention of the Missouri Farmers' Association here.

"Farmers in the South and the Southwest do not want it," Williams said. "They know it is against the policies of sound government because it opens the way to an infinite number of other subsidies, that it is against the fundamental interests of the farmers themselves because it tends to increase acreage and overproduction, and that in the long run it fattens the pockets of the speculator, not the farmer."

As to co-operative marketing, "Thinking farmers everywhere are recognizing that there is no political remedy for an economic evil, and that the only man who can help the farmer is the farmer himself. These farmers are recognizing that in the long run the price received for a given product is governed by the degree to which that product is organized for co-operative marketing."

"What is only three per cent organized, and it has but 70 per cent of its pre-war buying power per bushel. Cotton is 20 per cent organized, and it has 125 per cent of its pre-war buying power per pound. Tobacco is 70 per cent organized, and it has 212 per cent of its pre-war buying power per pound."

The modern type of commodity co-operative marketing by farmers, according to Williams, has spread so rapidly within the last few years that more than a million men are members of these associations and through their associations market for themselves more than one-tenth of all farm products produced in the United States.

Co-operative Principle.
Williams defined the modern type of co-operative marketing association as being based on five fundamental principles:

1. Organization by commodity and not by locality, so the commodity may be controlled, no matter where it is grown.
2. Farmers only as members, so there may be no divided interests.
3. An iron-clad, legally-binding, long-term contract between members so their association may be assured of a specific volume of business.
4. Universal internal pooling of prices according to grades and quality so each member may receive exactly the same treatment as every other member.
5. Employment of experts in the technical handling, processing and sale of the commodity.

The co-operative organizations which today are handling cotton, tobacco, rice, raisins, eggs, beans, potatoes, citrus fruits and similar commodities, Williams said, are eliminating waste, speculation and graft, have shortened the route from producer to consumer, have increased the producer's price without affecting that of the consumer, and have assured every farmer of the correct grade and value of his product.

In addition, and depending upon their degree of control, they have stabilized farm prices at a fair level, have removed danger of slump and famine, and have been a potential influence in assuring farmers a reasonable return for their labor, he declared.

MAY NEED LICENSES FROM TWO STATES TO FISH IN OHIO RIVER

At least, in That Part of Stream That Flows Between Illinois and Kentucky.

By the Associated Press.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 20.—Fishing in the Ohio River between the Illinois and Kentucky shores may require a license from both states, a ruling by Attorney-General Brundage of Illinois indicates.

W. P. McCauley of Cairo wanted to go fishing in the river. But officials of both states demanded a license fee. He didn't know which to pay it to, so he submitted the controversy to the Attorney-General.

Kentucky and Illinois, Brundage held, have concurrent jurisdiction over the Ohio River where its waters form the boundary of both states. This jurisdiction is granted by acts of Congress pertaining to the admission of Kentucky to the Union and enabling Illinois to form a State Constitution.

"The State of Illinois," Brundage held, "by virtue of concurrent jurisdiction, has power to enforce its statutes all the way across the river."

"A fishing license, therefore, must be obtained from this State to fish in the Ohio River, even though a license may have been gotten from another state to fish in the same waters."

FREIGHT CAR PROBLEM PASSING

U. P. Official Predicts No Serious Shortage This Year.

By the Associated Press.
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 20.—Problems of freight car shortages, which have caused concern to shippers throughout the country during the last four years apparently have passed into insignificance, according to E. E. Calvin, vice president of the Union Pacific System who arrived here yesterday from the Northwest, en route to Omaha.

"I cannot say whether there will be a car shortage this fall," he said, "but if all the shippers start loading at once it is impossible for any railroad to handle traffic without congestion. If the traffic is normal there will be no serious car shortage."

FOR ABOLISHING THE PUBLIC ORPHANS' HOME

Secretary Davis Also Favors Enrollment to Weed Out Undesirable Aliens.

By the Associated Press.

FRENCH LICK, Ind., Aug. 30.— Conservation of child welfare in America, by the abolition of the public orphan's home and poorhouse, selective immigration, the enrollment of all aliens, and a survey of conditions among the poor of the nation, were advocated by Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, in an address yesterday before the National Fraternal Congress of America, in session here."Europe must stop making America the dumping ground for her undesirable," said Davis in his plea for selective immigration. He cited conditions among the poor of Europe and expressed the belief that practically every one of the poor class there looked toward America as a future home.

For Enrolling Aliens.

Secretary Davis held that the only way to weed out our undesirable aliens who had "sneaked into America" was through universal enrollment. He said he knew of one country which gave transportation to America, rather than build an addition to its penitentiary.The separations of families through the present poorhouse and orphan systems was branded as inhuman by the secretary who compared the system to the disruption of families of slaves in the days prior to the Civil War. He declared that children with no definite knowledge of their parenthood are literally "farmed out" to the lowest bidder to live under conditions worse than the poorest of homes.There are a half million children in America growing up, in poor farms and orphan homes with no care, no education, and no attention to physical defects," he said.

Results of the System.

"Eighty per cent of our criminals are recruited from these defective children who received no attention or had no home life in their youth."Secretary Davis cited the great orphanage of the Loyal Order of Moose at Mooseheart, Ill., as an institution where homeless children are given the proper training, and urged the representatives of the 98 fraternal orders represented at this convention to take similar steps to conserve the youth of the nation.

CANADIAN ORDER WILL REDUCE RUM RUNNING, DRY AGENT SAYS

Dominion to Refuse Clearance Papers for Boats Under 250 Tons Bound for Foreign Ports.

By the Associated Press.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 30.—A ruling from Vancouver, B. C., that Canadian customs officers must refuse clearance papers to boats under 250 tons clearing with liquor cargoes for foreign ports, will eliminate 80 per cent of the rum-running into the State of Washington, William M.
Whitney, assistant prohibition director for the Pacific Northwest, predicted.It means that from now on all the booze that gets in here will come off the larger vessels which will ostensibly sail for Mexican ports, but in reality unload their cargoes on fishing smacks in the Sound Islands," said Whitney. "I judge that in the past between 10 and 20 per cent of illicit liquor came in this manner."The only other means of liquor smuggling remains by automobile transportation. But this is a tough game for the bootlegger and seldom meets with success.

WOMAN PREACHER PREFERS ERA OF LIPSTICK TO THAT OF SALOON

Girls and Boys of Today Are Better Than Parents Were at Their Ages, She Asserts.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—The era of the lipstick is not nearly so depraved as was that of the open saloon, the Rev. Lida M. Herrick of Lincoln, Neb., told the International Association of Women Preachers at their convention here yesterday.The young people of the present are better than they ever were in the past, Miss Herrick said, and talk about the evils of flapperism is doing more harm than good."Boys and girls are not going to perdition," she said. "But the best way to send them there is to keep up all this talk about the evils of the younger generation. The girls now-days are better than their mothers were, and the boys are better than their fathers. They do not get into so much mischief, because they have more to think about."

SUICIDE RECALLS OLD LOVE

AFFAIR WITH NOTED ACTRESS

Belasco Tells How F. H. Sargent's Life Was Saddened When Mary Anderson Married Another.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—An old love between Mary Anderson, famous actress, and Franklin H. Sargent, president of the American Academy of Dramatic Art, who killed himself at Plattsburg on Wednesday, was disclosed today by David Belasco, Sargent's friend.

"Years ago," Belasco said, "Sargent had a love affair that saddened his entire life. He loved Mary Anderson, who since has married and lived in London in retirement from the stage. Sargent adored her. He taught her how to act. He was engaged to marry for a long time. There was a sudden end to the love affair, and I think they never saw each other again. Since then Sargent had been a changed man. He shrank from women and became noted among his friends as a woman hater."

Mary Anderson married Antonio de Hernandez Navarro.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Although American officials today would not discuss the imposition by Cuba of an "observation" censorship on cablegrams of a "political significance" between the island and the United States, it was regarded in unofficial circles as directly due to the agitation there against certain Government legislative measures.

Thus far, no official confirmation of the imposition of any form of censorship has been received by the State Department. A message received from the American embassy in Havana last night made no reference to it.

Observers of the Cuban situation believe the action of the Cuban authorities is taken as a precaution against serious political developments threatened by opposition to its legislative policies as embodied particularly in the lottery measure and the railroad consolidation bill.

Mass meetings, organized by the Assembly of Veterans and Patriots to emphasize its protest against the legislation and its demands for "better government," are indicated in dispatches received here to have resulted in a rapid spread of the opposition movement.

A message to the Cuban legation today from Foreign Minister Céspedes of Cuba said that "peace" prevailed in the island. "There is no foundation" the message said, for the report that there is any political disturbance in the province of Oriente. Peace is maintained throughout the republic.

It became known that, as a result of erroneous reports published in Cuba the legation had sought and received from the state department definite assurance that American Ambassador Crowder had made no statement and would make none regarding support of the Assembly of Veterans and Patriots which has been holding meetings in Cuba to discuss various public questions.

FREE STATE PARTY HOLDS ITS LEAD IN DAIL ELECTION

With Returns From Country to Be Received, Government Has Nearly 60 Seats in New Parliament.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—Under the proportional representation system, the counting and recounting of votes for candidates for the new Parliament of the Irish Free State still continues today, but the final reports may not be available until next week.
Most of the returns so far tabulated have been from the cities. The returns from the country districts must be received before it will be possible to ascertain the exact complexion of the new Parliament, but the Government party, with nearly 60 seats so far, seems to maintain its plurality.
More than one-third that number are available for the rival changes which the Republicans have threatened to establish.
President Cosgrave and other Government leaders have deemed the situation safe enough to leave for the day to prepare for Ireland's entrance into the League of Nations.
Cosgrave, embarking, the President told the Daily Mail an outline of his future program.
"I shall build up our commerce and agriculture as far as it is in our power, and we shall start that hard work that our country needs so badly," he said.

Miss MacSwiney One of Five Women Elected.

DUBLIN, Aug. 30.—Wexford returned two Republicans against one for the Government, Labor and others, in the Dail election. Cork returned two Government and one business candidates and Mary MacSwiney, Republican. Miss Mac-Swiney is the fifth woman elected, of whom being Republicans.

Miss Now in Jail Elected.

John O'Kelly, former Sinn Fein representative in Paris and now in internment camp, and A. O'Mallain, one of De Valera's best fighters, who in jail, have been elected from the north city.
P.T. Daly, one of the Larkin candidates, was defeated, while the republican candidate, Alderman O'Brien, was elected in the last Dail, also failed to get a seat.

Of the eight seats in this constituency, the Government has won Cathal Brougha (Mrs. Charles Brougha) was elected to a Republican seat from Waterford.

In the Dublin County constituency the complete returns show: Government (Brougha) was elected to a republican seat.

Education Minister Defeated.

Most interesting of the returns from Monday's election was the defeat in Meath of John J. O'Kelly (O'Kelly). He was the Sinn Fein Minister of Education and who represented Eamon De Valera in the United States and Australia.
O'Kelly had been deported from the latest country by the Australian Government. O'Kelly never was identified with the army movements and represented the intellectual rather than the physical elements of the Republican party.

The return of Desmond Fitzgerald, Minister of Foreign Affairs, is semi-officially announced as is also that of Mrs. Collins O'Driscoll, sister of the late Michael Collins.

DEATH HOUSE MAN WAS SENT TO DEATH HOUSE ON FORGED LETTER

Creasey Case, New York
Judge Declares.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—An opinion handed down by Judge Mc-Laughlin of the Court of Appeals declares that William Creasey of Covington, N.Y., was sent to the death-house at Sing Sing prison on the strength of a forged letter, known to be such by the prosecutor who sought against Creasey, it became known yesterday. Creasey's conviction for the murder of Edith Lavoy, a school teacher, who was said to have refused to marry him, was set aside last month by the Court of Appeals when a new trial was ordered.

WILL OPEN NEW YORK BANK WITH 300,000 'PARTNERS'

Manufacturer to Limit Ownership of Stock to One Share Each.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—William C.
Durant, automobile manufacturer, will open a bank in New York to be known as the Liberty National Bank.
The bank was announced last night. The bank, according to Durant's plans, will have 300,000 partners, each of whom will be permitted to own no more than one share of its stock.
Durant declared last April he would organize a bank "owned by the people at large," and established on the principle of "business comradeship." Under the plans, the president, the members of the board and the directors will serve without pay.

Mechanic Seriously Burned.
Martin Wood, 27 years old, of 1816 Third street, a mechanic, was seriously on the chest, arms and back at 4 p. m. yesterday when he attempted to extinguish a fire which started when a welding torch set fire to some gasoline in the garage of the Meleto Auto Co., 717 tenth and Morgan streets. He was taken to the city hospital.

Complaint Against Painters.
Leslie Condon of 4119 Greenlea place and Louis Grone, Benoit Building, complained to policemen yesterday that their clothes had been ruined by paint splashed by painters at work on the Pacific Hotel, Ninth and Market streets, as they walked passed the place. John Roach of 420TW Evans avenue, foreman of the painters, was arrested on a charge of destruction of property and gave bond. The painters said the affair was accidental.

KLAN RIOT EVIDENCE NOT BASIS FOR MURDER CHARGE

Inquiry Into Fighting at Carnegie, Pa., in Which Klansman Was Slain, to Continue.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 23.—(Patrick J. McDermott, Carnegie undertaker, arrested in connection with the riot Saturday night at Carnegie during which Thomas H. Abbott, a Klansman, was killed, was released from the Allegheny County jail on $10,000 bond after a charge of involvement in riot had been filed against him.

Coroner McGregor declared in a statement last night that the evidence obtained was not sufficient to warrant committing any particular person upon a charge of murder.
"Due to the fact that those who were present will not make a statement, we have been unable to obtain the proper evidence," he said.
However, the investigation will continue and an inquest will be held.

After This Treatment

You can keep your neck or face free from hair or free from occasional use of hair cream and to make it so you have no fear of snoring or snoring the skin. A thick paste is made by rolling some of the powdered delonix with water.
Then spread on the hair and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and all traces of hair have vanished. Be careful, however, to get real delonix and mix fresh.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY TO INSPECT STONEHAM CHECKS

Baseball Magnate's Relations to Bankrupt Bucket Shop Under Investigation.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The National Exhibition Co., owners of the New York National League baseball team, was served with a Federal grand jury subpoena yesterday calling for the production Friday morning of the checks covering $170,000 alleged to have been advanced by Charles A. Stoneham to E. M. Fuller & Co., bankrupt brokerage firm, through Thomas Foley, Tammany leader.

One of the checks, it was said, was for $25,000, which hitherto had not come to light and had not been included in the checks Stoneham produced before the referees in Bankruptcy.

The subpoena was the first indication that the August grand jury had been investigating the relation of Stoneham to the Fuller bucketshop.
Stoneham had testified during the Fuller bankruptcy proceedings that he had loaned the money, with the exception of the $25,000 check which was never mentioned to Fuller and William F. McGee, his partner, at the request of Foley, a mutual friend. The checks, drawn against the count of the National Exhibition Co., were in each instance covered by collateral deposited with the corporation, Stoneham testified.

On the Fuller company books the money was entered in the capital account, but Stoneham denied it was used to purchase a part interest in the concern, and insisted that some time Foley would repay him.

DOCTOR SAYS WIFE TOOK POISON

Asserts Mrs. James Roy Compton Seized Bottle in His Office.

Dr. James Roy Compton of Hillsboro, Mo., called a patrolman to his office, 219 South Grand boulevard, yesterday afternoon and reported that his wife, Mrs. Eva Mae Compton, had gone to the office Tuesday afternoon and forcibly taken from him a bottle containing tincture of iodine, a portion of which she swallowed. He said she was taken to Josephine Hospital, 1630 South Grand boulevard, and treated until yesterday morning when she was discharged as out of danger.

The incident related by Dr. Compton occurred a short time after his wife had filed suit for divorce, alleging general indignities. Dr.
Compton said that he previously had filed suit for divorce in Hillsboro.
They were married Oct. 28, 1921, three days after Dr. Compton and his first wife were divorced.

HUSBAND MISSING SINCE JULY 5

Woman Says He Had $345 and Ring Valued at $500.

Mrs. Tony Spina of 800A Biddle street yesterday reported to the police that her husband had been missing since July 5. She said he left home after announcing he was going to a barber shop. He had, she said, about $345 in cash in his pocket and wore a diamond ring valued at $500. The ring had the initials
"P. C." engraved on the inside. Spina is 20 years old.

When he left home he wore a gray suit and a straw hat with a black band.

JUNG FRAU JOCH, Switzerland,
Aug. 23.—The bodies of Sir Henry Hubert Hayden and his two guides, who left Lauterbrunnen Aug. 10 for an excursion up the Jung Frau, were found yesterday on the west base of the precipice on the Finsteraarhorn.

Sir Henry Hubert Hayden was director of the geological survey of India. He was 56 years old. Notable among his voluminous works was that written while he was with Col.
S. G. Burrard, Surveyor-General of India, on the geography and geology of the Himalaya Mountains and Thibet.

She explained she had taken the money from its hiding place at her home and had visited a sister on

COMMISSIONING 'COLORADO' GIVES THIS COUNTRY MOST POWERFUL OF BATTLESHIPS

Electrically Propelled Vessel Carries Eight 16-Inch Guns—Is Described as Vast Experimental Marine Laboratory.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The addition of the battleship Colorado which was commissioned at Camden, N. J., today, to the United States battle fleet, once more places the navy in undisputed possession of "the most powerful fighting machine afloat."

Naval engineers of the principal marine powers virtually without exception have conceded that the 33,000-ton, 21-knot monster, electrically equipped throughout and with the ability to toss eight tons of metal and explosives 34,500 yards at a single discharge, is without an equal on any of the seven seas.

Vast Experimental Laboratory.
Formal acceptance of the Colorado by the Navy Department today marks the end of the work of rounding out the first line of the United States battle fleet as allotted by the five-Power treaty. During the next eight years—until 1931—no keel will be laid in any American yard for a first-class naval ship. In that year, work will be begun on ships to replace three of the present fleet.

The new ship is described in marine circles as "a vast experimental laboratory." The most advanced designs in ship equipment of every sort have been installed, from huge propelling motors to the electric potato peelers in the galley. These will be tested, ardently and the results placed at the disposal of American shipbuilders for their guidance in building the national merchant marine and the future navy.

Authorized in the navy bill of 1916, the Colorado was constructed at the Camden yards of the New York Shipbuilding Co. on a "cost plus fee" basis which brought her total cost to $27,000,000.

Her main offensive armament comprises eight 16-inch guns, the largest permitted under the Washington convention treaty, mounted in four turrets.

To make these guns terrifically effective, there is a system of fire control declared to be superior to any yet employed either at sea or on land. The main control station is located at the top of one of the 140-foot cage masts, with several duplicate stations in more protected parts of the ship for use of the mast shot away. Preliminary tests of the control resulted in the assembly by naval gunners that the Colorado's entire broadside can be fired in less than one minute after an enemy's position is reported by the accompanying air force.

Defensive Innovations.
The defensive equipment also includes many innovations devised from study of the Battle of Jutland.
Special installations decrease to the minimum the danger of disablement by "plunging fire" from large guns, submarine torpedoes and air bombs.
The 12-inch main armor belt has been supplemented by several lateral protective decks and a veritable honeycomb of watertight compartments.

For dealing with airplanes, the Colorado has four 3-inch rapid fire guns with a vertical range of two miles. She also will carry several battle planes for "direct defense" in meeting hostile attack from the air.
The air defense also includes in part the entire secondary battery of fourteen 8-inch guns, primarily designed to fight off destroyers.

Unusually Mobile.
Each of the propellers is driven by a motor, to which power is supplied by two turbine generators. Control of the propelling machinery is centered in a small room in the most protected part of the ship wherein half a dozen men have charge of a simple set of electric switches and valves. Ease of maneuvering is declared to be a feature of the new ship, tests having proven she can be brought to a full stop from a forward speed of 21 knots in 3 minutes and run backward at not less than 15 knots. This is impossible in a steam turbine driven vessel.

The Colorado will possess all the conveniences of a well equipped city.
Within her hull are spacious quarters for her complement of 1498 officers and men, as well as reading and writing rooms, a recreation room, special ladies' room for visitors, laundry without limitation as to the number of pieces to be handled, a barber shop, a tailor shop, cobbler shop and moving picture theater.

The statistics of the Colorado follow:

Dimensions.

Length over all, 624 feet.

Breadth on water line, 97 feet.

Normal displacement, 32,600 tons.

Speed, 21 knots.

Armament.

appears the "book" was among a medical works of her late husband, and of little value. The book, yea, on examining them discovered they

COMMUNIST JOLTS COMMONS

Correspondence of the Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 10.—The ideas of J. T. W. Newbold, the Scottish communist in the House of Commons, have had relatively little effect on that stolid body, but the same cannot be said of his hot-weather dress.
The House was startled during London's recent heat wave when Newbold appeared without a collar, without a tie, without a collar button, without a vest, and with his shirt unbuttoned and opened at the neck.

The communist M. P. walked to his seat in silence until some of the Labor party members gave a few cheers in approval of his audacity.

Prior to this entrance, Commander Kenworthy held the center of interest by appearing in the House in white shoes and a yellow palm beach suit.

BEFORE DELIVERY OF COAL, FEDERAL REPORT SHOWS

Commission Asserts That Wholesalers in Anthracite Realized 'Margins' Running From 20 Cents to $4.75 a Ton in Winter of 1922.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Responsibility for high prices paid by the consumer for anthracite coal last winter was laid directly to "the speculative jobber or wholesaler," in a report issued yesterday by the Federal Commission. In some instances, it was found by commission investigators, four wholesale purchases intervened between the mine and the retailer, "margin" running from 20 cents to an aggregate of $4.75 a ton. "Should a stoppage of mining occur on Sept. 1," said the report, "it will accentuate the already panicky demand for anthracite and, unless the user and the retailer representing him learn from past experience, unscrupulous wholesalers will have another opportunity to repeat their speculative activities of last fall and winter on any anthracite coal that may be on the market after Sept. 1, as well as following the resumption of mining. "In the absence of any definite regulatory powers over either mine prices or wholesaler margins on the part of the State and Federal authorities, the extent of such activities, and the amount of premium added by wholesalers will depend largely upon the willingness of the retailer and the consuming public to pay the prices demanded. It is only with the retailer's consent that the middleman may receive as much in margin as the coal miner receives in wages from the same ton of anthracite coal."

Interlocking Stock Ownerships. Declaring that under normal conditions wholesalers have a proper place in the distribution of coal, the report continues: "They furnish an outlet for the coal of small mines whose total tonnage is too small to warrant the maintenance of a selling organization. In times of normal market, competition among wholesalers for the operators' available tonnage, on the one hand, and for the consumers' and retailers' trade, on the other, keeps margins and prices low and commensurate with the services rendered as distributors of coal. In time of a panic or sellers' market, however, the independent wholesalers tend to become speculators, and buy and sell among themselves, thereby pyramiding margins and advancing prices without rendering any equivalent service in bringing the coal nearer to the consumer. "The wholesalers whose activities resulted in premium prices last winter are, nominally at least, not directly connected with the mines producing the coal, although there are a considerable number of cases in which operators and wholesalers, while separate and distinct corporations, are related through interlocking stock ownerships, interlocking directorates, and interlocking officers. In some cases the interrelations extend to a chain of operators and wholesalers."

Many Cases of "Pyramiding." In times of sellers' market, anthracite is passed from one to another of these closely related interests, each taking a profit on the transaction. With the result that wholesale margins are pyramiding and the consumer pays extremely high prices and profits to a group of related interests. In other cases, the pyramiding results from speculative buying and selling among wholesalers, who are separate and independent. Many cases of pyramiding of margins, both by related interests and among really separate and independent wholesalers, have been traced by the commission.

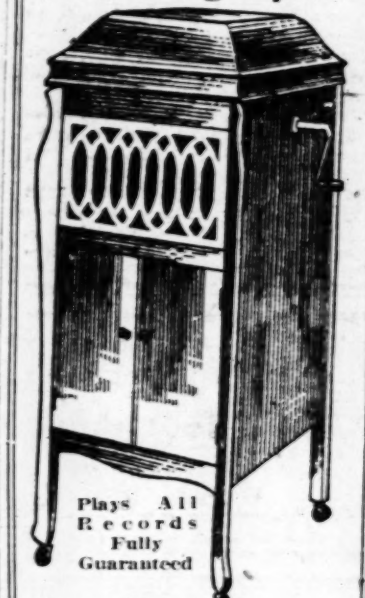

"Anthracite coal especially yields itself to a split among wholesalers whenever there is an interruption of production due to strikes, railroad disability or any other cause. In tracing carloads of high premium anthracite coal purchased by New England retailers last winter, it was found that as many as four wholesale purchases and sales sometimes intervened between the mine and the retailer. "More than half of the 750 cars of anthracite coal of domestic mines traced passed through the hands of only one wholesaler at margins varying from 20 cents to $4.75 a ton. Margins frequently taken were 50 cents, 75 cents, $1.25, $1.75 and $2.50 a gross ton, the majority of margins being between 50 cents and $1.25 a ton."

"On a small number of cars passing through the hands of four jobbers, the total margins taken on individual cars ranged from $1 to $2.25 a gross ton. On the car for which margins amount to $2.25 a ton, the first wholesaler took 25 cents, the second 40 cents, the third 35 cents and the fourth $1.25 a ton. "Special Terms With Wholesalers. Some mining companies were found to have had special arrangements with wholesalers by which the mine billed the coal to the wholesaler at the prices approved by the Pennsylvania Fair Practices Committee, with the understanding that if the wholesaler sold the coal at a price above the mine price billed, plus a stipulated wholesale margin or commission, the wholesaler remitted the balance to the operator. "Other mining companies sold coal to individuals, in some cases through their own officers, at prices agreed upon with the Fair Practices Committee. These individuals then sold the coal to other wholesalers at higher prices. Such practices applied especially to shipments to destinations outside the State of Pennsylvania, thus indicating the ineffectiveness of state regulation of prices at the mine over coal entering into interstate commerce."

AWARD ANNOUNCED
GRANT TO CHESTER

Associates of Rear Admiral in Mosul Concessions to Receive $300,000 in Cash,

BOTH GROUPS BOUND
BY THE AGREEMENT

Failure of Barnard Faction to Obtain Needed Capital, Will Carry With It a Forfeiture of Interest.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Two groups of financiers, gambling for visioned profits of billions of dollars through the exploitation of the vast Mosul oil fields in Turkey, as a result of the Chester concessions, have stopped fighting each other. They settled their differences so they might the more quickly get to work bringing the golden profits they expected to harvest.

Under an award made yesterday, to which they pledged obedience in advance, the financial associates of Rear Admiral Colby M. Chester, retired, agreed to accept $300,000 in cash and a 10 per cent interest in the profits of the concessions which bear his name. The opposing group of financiers, headed by Charles Austin Barnard, a Canadian, agreed to pay the sum to the Chester group in a stipulated period, and if it fails to produce the cash within that time, the Barnard group agrees to forfeit all interest in the concession.

The award was made by Frederick S. Blackall, manufacturer of Woonsocket, R. I., and Rear Admiral Harry Harwood Rousseau, on duty at Norfolk, Va., Navy Yard, both of whom are officials of the Ottoman American Development Co., which owns the Chester concessions. The Chester and Barnard groups agreed last spring to accept any settlement of their differences that these two men might suggest.

Persons close to the Chester groups, from whom the details of the settlement were learned, indicated that the associates of Rear Admiral Chester are satisfied with the award.

Use Only American Capital.
It was stated emphatically, however, that the practical elimination of the Chester group from the exploitation of the Turkish oil fields under the Chester concessions does not mean the squeezing out of American capital. Although Barnard himself is a Canadian, it is strictly provided in the award that it was explained, that only American capital shall be permitted to take part in the enterprise.

It will not be surprising to many if the Barnard group is forced after all to forfeit its whole interest in the Chester group. Ever since Rear Admiral Chester first conceived the plan for exploiting the limitless resources of Turkey, through a concession from the Turkish Government, American capital has fought shy of the scheme.

It was due to Chester's inability to bring in sufficient capital to swing the project that the Barnard group came in. Just who was back of Chester and later of Barnard has never been known. The fight between the two groups came when Col. K. E. Clayton-Kennedy, retained by Barnard in Turkey, reported to Barnard. He told his employers that Chester's claim to a large interest in the profits of the concessions was not proper. Instead of the personal influence of Chester being responsible for the Turkish approval of the concessions, he reported, the Turks would have given the same concession to any American.

Recognized Chester's Friends' Claim.
The Chester group has insisted on a large interest in the concessions, basing its claim on the years of preparatory work done by Rear Admiral Chester in Turkey and the money he and his friends expended.

Rear Admiral Chester himself no longer retains any interest in the concessions. He sold out several months ago. But his sons and those friends who financed him in the past when his idea of a Turkish concession seemed only a dream, are still in control of the Ottoman American Exploration Co., the original company. For their efforts in the past they demanded a substantial interest in the new Ottoman American Development Co. This they now get under the award of Blackall and Rear Admiral Rousseau, with the gambler's chance that if Barnard cannot raise the money they will be left in complete control of the whole affair without any expenditure.

Their only difficulty then will be to get new capital, which has been their difficulty from the beginning.
The belief is, apparently, that the Barnard group does command sufficient capital to pay the Chester group and swing the concessions into the huge dream dividends for which they all have been working.

BOY FOUND DYING ON RAFT

Chinese Believed to Be Only Survivor of Ship Sunk by Typhoon.

By the Associated Press.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 30.—A Chinese boy, dying from thirst and hunger aboard a life raft, picked up today by the Hong Kong-Shanghai coast steamer Sinking, is believed to be the sole survivor of the British steamer Mylla, which foundered in a typhoon recently en route from Chinwangtao to Shanghai with a cargo of coal.

Just prior to finding the boy on the raft, the steamer picked up a lifeboat in which was the body of Chief Engineer Harvey Green of the Mylla. The lifeboat and raft were found about 90 miles from Shanghai.

PROTEST AGAINST DELAY ON GIRLS' FARM DORMITORYMrs. Thomas Swinney, Head of Women's Organization, Writes Letters to City Officials.

Mrs. Thomas Swinney, president of the Women's League for Home Training, which, she says, has a membership of 1000 women, has written letters to Mayor Kiel, Director of Public Welfare Cunliff and President Neun of the Board of Aldermen, protesting that work on the proposed dormitory for girls at the Municipal Farm for Girls, near Valley Park, has not been started, and that owing to this delay, not one girl has been cared for at the farm since its purchase, more than a year ago. The farm, 135 acres and a keeper's house, was purchased with an original appropriation of $35,000, to which later was made available $50,000 for a dormitory for girls. Mrs. Swinney, who was active in a referendum movement against the farm, protests in her letter that the manager of the farm has an expense bill aggregating $500 a month, which includes a maid, the use of an automobile and other help.

The records at the Comptroller's office show that the manager, Walter Fath, has drawn $5500. His salary is $200 a month and he is allowed his keep, including a housemaid and the use of a car, as Mrs. Swinney sets forth.

Mayor Kiel is absent from the city. At the City Hall it was said that plans for the dormitory would be ready within two weeks and that bids would be let for the dormitory. The delay, it was said, was occasioned by the fact that money for the dormitory was not available until this year.

WOULD DOUBLE PAY OF THE LEGISLATORS

For Limiting Clerical Hire Expenditures of Senate to $300 a Day and the House to $400.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 30.—
The constitutional convention yesterday recommended to the people changes in forty-two of the first thirty-one sections of the present constitution and the addition of four new ones.

These changes will be grouped by the committee on submission and address after the convention has completed its final roll call, and will go before the voters at some time within the next six months in the form of proposed amendments to the present document.

The proposed alterations and additions relate to the articles on legislature, bill of rights, distribution of powers and legislative department and involve the work of four committees.

Some of Recommendations.
The more important recommendations do away with the present highly technical form of information and indictment in criminal cases and require only that "the indictment or information shall be sufficient if it state in plain and concise language the facts constituting the alleged offense."

Enlarge the power of religious corporations to hold property. At present they are restricted to such ownership for "church edifices, parsonages and cemeteries." The change would cover schools, hospitals, orphanages or similar nongovernmental religious charitable educational purposes and would enable religious corporations to hold property generally for other purposes up to six years.

Increase the pay of members of the state legislature from $5 to $10 a day.

Would Limit Clerical Hire.
Limit the expenditures for clerical hire of the state senate to $300 a day and of the house to $400 a day.
At present there is no limit to such expenditures.

Increase the signatures required on initiative petitions from 5 to 8 per cent of the qualified voters in two-thirds of the congressional districts and on referendum petitions from 10 to 15 per cent.

Provide that measures enacted by the Legislature and subjected to the referendum may go into effect at other laws until rejected by the people instead of being suspended from operation until passed upon at the polls as now.

Submission of Bills.
Provide that acts of the Legislature, referred, shall be presented to the voters in the form "shall the act of the General Assembly be rejected."
The present form of submission is
"Be it enacted by the people of the State of Missouri." This change would place upon the enemies of the measure the burden of making a fight when a measure is submitted.
If they desire its defeat, whereas the present system compels friends of a legislative act to conduct an expensive campaign of education throughout the State to obtain re-enactment of their measure at the polls.

Change the commencement of the fiscal year of the State from Jan. 1 as at present, to July 1. This would obviate the biennial necessity for a very branch of the State Government to violate the Constitution and maintain by increasing expenditures for the first three months of each biennial period, which have not been allocated by the Legislature. The change because appropriation bills are the last passed by each Legislature, which convenes in January and usually finishes its work in March.
Appropriations made by previous Legislatures expire as the new ones convene, leaving the departments and boards without funds until new appropriations are made.

Secure Compensation Laws.
Assure the constitutionality of "compulsory or elective workmen's compensation laws" enacted by the Legislature.

Declare that "the General Assembly shall provide by law for the administration and promotion of public health." This section is designed to make constitutional various health regulations, such as the operation of school lunchrooms and phases of open-air schools (or tubercular children, about which some question has been raised).

The draft says that "the right of citizens shall not be denied or abridged on account of race, color or sex." which is simply declaratory of the bill rights or suffrage extended to women.

Many of the other changes offered committees.

Some of the recommendations are:
To do away with the present high-technical form of information and substitute a simpler, more direct method of conveying the facts of a case to the jury.

To increase the power of religious organizations to hold property. At property for "church edifices, par-

To provide that measures enacted by the legislature and subjected to the

as they are passed, instead of being suspended from operation until passed upon at the polls.

To provide that acts of the legislature, referred, shall be presented to
the voters in the form "shall the act
of the General Assembly be rejected."
The present form of submission is:
"Do you favor or oppose the passage of the act of Missouri, which change will place upon the enemies of a measure the burden of making a vote when a measure is submitted, rather than its defeat, whereas the present system compels friends of a measure to conduct an expensive campaign of education throughout the state to obtain re-enactment of the measure at the polls."

To change the commencement of the biennial session of the state government from the first Monday in January to the first Monday in July. This would make the biennial session for every branch of the state government begin on the same day.

To provide that the legislature shall be in session for at least three months of each biennial period, which have not been achieved by the legislature.
This measure because appropriation bills have been passed by the legisla-

usually finishes its work in March.
Expenditures made by previous legislatures expire as the new ones begin, leaving the departments and boards without funds until new appropriations are made.

To amend the constitutionality of the "separation of powers" law, enacted by the legislature.
To declare that "the General Assembly shall provide by law for the administration and promotion of public health." This section is designed to enable constitutional various health measures, such as the operation of public lunchrooms and phases of school health work, to be carried out without the necessity of a separate law.

The draft says that "the right of citizens of Missouri to vote or hold office shall not be denied or abridged on account of race, color, or sex."
The new bill simply declaratory of the rights of suffrage extended to all.

Two distinguished foreign jurists and

Lord Birkenhead, former Lord which was a joint meeting with the

Unknown Soldier's Tomb Now Fenced to Protect It From Vandals

The authorities of Arlington Cemetery in Washington have found nothing is sacred from that class of vandals that has a mania for defacing the resting places of the dead. Not even the beautiful tomb of America's Unknown Soldier has escaped their defacement and, in order to keep away those persons who insist upon writing their names on it, as well as sitting on it and otherwise showing disrespect for it, this fence has been built around it. Later the fence will be duplicated in bronze.

AMERICAN BAR REFRAINS FROM RECOMMENDATIONS ON PERMANENT WORLD COURT

Changed Circumstances Since Last Year Given As Reason—New Hague Conference to Clarify International Law Indorsed.

By the Associated Press.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 30.— Action by the American Bar Association indorsing the idea of calling a new conference of nations in continuation of two former conferences at The Hague in efforts to clarify the principles of international law, was recommended in the report of the Committee on International Law today's session of the American Bar Association.

"It would not seem to be a matter of serious doubt that much may be accomplished in the direction of creating and preserving harmonious relations between nations and toward the reduction of causes of international disagreements, if the principles of international law should receive consideration at a new conference of the nations in accordance with recommendations by the committee of jurists assembled at The Hague in 1920," the report read.

Purposes of Conference.
The purpose of the conference would be to restate the established rules of international law, especially in the fields affected by the events of the world war; to formulate and agree upon the amendments and additions, if any, to the rules of international intercourse which have followed the war; to endeavor to reconcile divergent views and secure general agreement upon the rules which have been in dispute heretofore; to consider the subjects now adequately regulated, but as to which the interests of justice require that rules of law shall be declared.

The committee refrained from making any recommendations concerning a permanent court of international justice. At the 1922 meeting of the association it was instructed to formulate such amendments or changes in the statute which now constitutes the court, which, in the judgment of the committee, might make it possible for the United States to accept it.

Changes in circumstances since the last meeting were given, especially in view of the fact that the late President Harding submitted a message to the Senate asking the advice and consent of the Senate to ratify the League of Nations. The principles and ideals of government in the public schools and colleges.
There were no legislative sessions in some states, but 24 states now have some such laws. In five states the bills presented failed to pass. Conservatism of school authorities was one difficulty encountered in having such bills adopted, the report declared. The committee recommended that work along this line continue.

"The schools of America should no more consider graduating a student who lacks faith in our government than a school of theology should graduate a minister who lacks faith in God," Saner declared.

Service of Education.
"It should be borne in mind that the service which is incumbent upon us is primarily one of education.
Such education begins with our children in our schools and should extend itself so that every adult citizen in our country is reached. The foundation work, however, is to be done in our schools. The committee's work should be organized, therefore, first of all so that in some way direct contact is made with all ways and means of training for citizenship a better training for citizenship than has been the case heretofore."

The report closed with recommendations that a section of the American Bar Association on American citizenship be established, and that sufficient funds be provided for it to carry on its work.

Appointment of a special committee to co-operate with a similar committee of the National Association of Credit men to endeavor to suggest ways and means of removing alleged abuses in practice in bankruptcy cases, was recommended by the committee on professional ethics and grievances, of which Thomas Francis Howe is chairman.

The committee reported on its meeting with a committee of credit men, following publication of a bulletin by the credit men entitled "The Profession of Law Needs Housecleaning." The bulletin criticized lawyers for supposed inactivity in endeavoring to prevent fraudulent practices in bankruptcy cases. Local conditions were found to vary, and cooperation of local bar associations was urged. Because of limited time it was not determined whether any amendments to the present bankruptcy law would be effective or desirable, as appointment of the special committee was suggested to give the question further study.

CANONS OF JUDICIAL ETHICS PRESENTED TO THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION BY TAFT

Chief Justice Heads Committee That Urges Judges to Avoid Infractions of Law and Let Personal Behavior Be Beyond Reproach.

By the Associated Press.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 30.— Reports of various committees and sections occupied the attention today of delegates to the annual convention of the American Bar Association, which tonight will hear an address by Secretary Hughes on the Monroe Doctrine. The special reports included, in particular, the Judicial Ethics, presented by William Howard Taft, Chief Justice of the United States, as chairman of the committee.

The report contained proposed canons of judicial ethics as an addition to the canons for professional conduct of lawyers previously adopted by the association. Under 33 provisions of judicial activity definitions are laid down governing conduct.

The proposed canons follow in part:
"It is the duty of all judges in the United States to support the Federal Constitution and that of the state whose laws they administer; in so doing, they should fearlessly observe and apply fundamental limitations and guarantees.

"A judge's official conduct should be free from impropriety and the appearance of impropriety; he should avoid infractions of law; and his personal behavior, not only upon the bench and in the performance of judicial duties, but also in his every day life, should be beyond reproach.

"He should be temperate, attentive, patient, impartial, and, since he is to administer the law and apply it to the facts, he should be studious of the principles of the law and diligent in endeavoring to ascertain the facts.

"He should exhibit industry and application commensurate with the duties imposed upon him.
"He should be prompt in the performance of his judicial duties, recognizing that the time of litigants, and of the public generally, is of value and that habitual lack of punctuality on his part justifies dissatisfaction with the administration of the business of the court.

"He should organize the court with a view to the prompt and convenient dispatch of its business and he should not tolerate abuses and neglect by clerks, and other assistants, who are sometimes prone to presume too much upon his good-nature acquiescence by reason of friendly association with him. It is desirable, too, where the judicial system permits, that he should cooperate with other judges of the same court, and in other courts, as members of a single judicial system, to promote the more satisfactory administration of justice.

"He should avoid nepotism.
"Trustees, receivers, masters, referees, guardians and other persons appointed by a judge to aid in the administration of justice should have the strictest probity and impartiality and should be selected with a view solely to their character and fitness. The power of making such appointments should not be exercised by him for personal or partisan advantage. He should not permit his appointments to be controlled by others than himself. He should also avoid nepotism and undue favoritism in his appointments.

"He should not act in a controversy where a near relative is a party, and, if such a course can reasonably be avoided, he should not sit in litigation where a near relative appears before him as counsel.
He should not suffer his conduct to justify the impression that any person can improperly influence him or unduly enjoy his favor, or that he is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or other person.

"He may properly intervene in a trial of a case to promote expedition and prevent unnecessary waste of time, or to clear up some obscurity, but he should bear in mind that his undue interference, impatience or participation in the examination of witnesses or a severe attitude on his part toward witnesses, especially those who are excited or terrified by the unusual circumstances of a trial, may tend to prevent the proper presentation of the cause, or the ascertainment of the truth in respect thereto.

Against Private Interviews.
"He should not permit private interviews, arguments or communications designed to influence his judicial action, where interests to be affected thereby are not represented before him, except in cases where provision is made by law for ex parte application.

"Justice should not be misled by the individual idiosyncrasies of those who administer it. A judge should adopt the usual and expected method of doing justice, and not seek to be extreme or peculiar in his judgments, or spectacular or sensational in the conduct of the court. Though vested with discretion in the imposition of mild or severe sentences, he should not commit persons to prison, or to the penitentiary, or bring before him to submit to Shouldn't Incur Obligations.

"He should not accept incidental duties; nor incur obligations, pecuniary or otherwise, which will in any way interfere or appear to interfere with his devotion to the expedient and proper administration of his official functions.

"He should avoid giving ground for any reasonable suspicion that he is utilizing the power or prestige of his office to persuade or coerce others to patronize or contribute, either to the success of private business ventures, or to charitable enterprises. He should, therefore, not enter into such private business or pursue such a course of conduct, as would justify such suspicion, nor use the power of his office or the influence of his name to promote the business interests of others; he should not solicit for charities, nor should he enter into any business relation which, in the normal course of events, reasonably to be expected, might bring his personal interest into conflict with the impartial performance of his official duties.

"He should abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which are apt to be involved in litigation in the court; and, after his accession to the bench, he should not retain such investments previously made, longer than a period sufficient to enable him to dispose of them without serious loss. It is desirable that he should, so far as reasonably possible, refrain from all relations which would normally tend to arouse the suspicion of partiality or relations warp or bias his judgment; or prevent his impartial attitude of mind in the administration of his judicial duties.

Shouldn't Seek Other Office.
"While holding judicial office, he should decline nomination to any other place which might reasonably tend to create a suspicion or criticism that the proper performance of his judicial duties is prejudiced or prevented thereby.

AUTO KILLS MAN, HURTS ANOTHER NEAR TROY, ILL.

Driver Says Lights on Other Machines Prevented Him From Seeing Pedestrians.

A man was killed and another seriously injured by an automobile as the driver walked across the National Old Trail road, two miles west of Troy, Ill., at 11 o'clock last night. Eugene Duckett, 34 years old, a coal miner of Glen Carbon, who was killed, and his cousin, Roy Harris, 23, also a miner of Glen Carbon, were on their way from Troy to Glen Carbon.

Bernard A. Gorman, 35 of Chester, local dispatcher for the Illinois Power and Light Corporation of Collinsville, was driving his automobile west along the road. He later informed the police that he was prevented from seeing the two men crossing the road by the glaring headlights of an eastbound automobile and that he ran them down before he knew they were in the road. Harris, who suffered a fractured skull, was taken to the home of Charles Duckett, another cousin, in Troy. An inquest will be held tonight. Gorman was not held.

Illinois Farmer Dies of Injuries Suffered in Auto Crash.

Richard Kuhn, 31 years old, a farmer of Trenton, Ill., died at 1 p. m. yesterday at the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium from fracture of the skull suffered Aug. 22 in an automobile accident near Trenton, while on his way to St. Louis. Kuhn was driving his automobile, which was struck by another car at a cross road. He was not thrown from the car, but his head struck a support of the top. Not believing he was seriously injured he went home and was treated there, but grew worse and subsequently was brought to St. Louis. A post mortem disclosed the fracture.

SEVEN TEXANS UNDER ARREST FOR FLOGGING OF MEXICAN

All Said to Have Admitted Taking Part in Affair, but Decline to Give Reason.

BRYAN, Tex., Aug. 18.—Alleged to have had a hand in the flogging Tuesday night of Manuel Moon, a Mexican, living three miles north of Bryan, were seven men placed under arrest late yesterday by Sheriff L. E. Morehead. They are D. R. Wright, M. T. Jones, L. K. Jones, William Scott, Aubrey Thompson, Tom Thompson and Henry Buffum. All acknowledged they participated in the flogging. Sheriff Morehead announced. They declined to give any reason for their alleged action. Moon, who has lived in and around Bryan for the last 15 years, and who served in the army during the World War, is at a hospital undergoing treatment. His condition is described as serious. The flogging was administered with wet ropes and revolvers, Sheriff Morehead said.

SLAYS WIFE AND HER MOTHER

West Texas Farmer Then Ends His Own Life With Bullet.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Aug. 18.—Entering the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. A. B. Miller, Clifford Donald, 35 years old, farmer of West Texas, yesterday shot his wife, Ruby, killing her instantly. He then turned the revolver on his mother-in-law, firing one shot, which resulted fatally a few hours later. He then went into the yard and fired a third shot into his brain, dying a few minutes later while en route to a hospital. Donald's wife has been making her home with her mother for the last two weeks.

NEW CONSTITUTION DELEGATES FAVOR PLAIN INDICTMENTS

are purely technical, designed to round out minor defects in the present fundamental law. For instance, language of one section bearing upon the nature of emergency legislation has been altered to conform with court decisions on the subject.

Personal Views Reflected.

A few other changes have been made to meet the views of men and women who rise above every day ideas of government. One example of this sort of thing lies in insertion of the words "the pursuit of happiness" in the declaration of the things to which all persons have a natural right.

Most of the proposed changes represent a heavy majority sentiment of the convention. Fifty-two votes are necessary on final passage, yet some of the proposals received as high as 67 of the 72 votes recorded. The section on initiative and referendum had a close call, receiving only 43 votes, or one more than enough.

Such was the speed with which the convention worked yesterday that its members are encouraged to hope for conclusion of most of its work by the latter part of next week. A temporary recess of a few days or a week or two, will be taken to enable grouping of the recommendations into form in which they will go on the ballot.

This will be done by the Committee on Submission and Address, of which Joshua W. Alexander of Galatin is chairman. The convention then will recess to pass on that work, sign the document and formally wind up its affairs.

Its findings must be submitted to the people at a special election within not less than 60 days nor more than six months after it adjourns.

to awaken the suspicion that his social or business relations or friendships, constitute an element in influencing his judicial conduct.

Summary of Obligations.

"In every particular his conduct should be above reproach. He should be conscientious, studious, thorough, courteous, patient, punctual, just, impartial, fearless of public clamor, regardless of public praise, and indifferent to private, political or partisan influences; he should administer justice, according to law, and deal with his appointments as a public trust; he should not allow other affairs or his private interests to interfere with the prompt and proper performance of his judicial duties, nor should he administer the office for the purpose of advancing his personal ambitions or increasing his popularity."

"$500,000 CONCERN"
HAS $2.85 IN BANK

Depositions Taken in Suit Against the St. Louis Automotive Corporation.

Testimony of officers of the St. Louis Automotive Corporation, in depositions yesterday and Tuesday before E. E. Butler as special commissioner in the receivership suit to collect a claim of $13,450 for John Irving Gerdes of Alton, was that the "$500,000 Delaware corporation" had $2.85 in the bank, accounts payable of about $1200, and debts, besides the Gerdes loan, of several thousand, including $696 to the president, John M. Neskov.

Neskov is named in the suit, with Mrs. Katherine Gilham, treasurer, and Miss Eva Goldstein, acting secretary. Gerdes is a minor. His parents were divorced. After his father was killed in a railroad accident, Mrs. Kathryn Gerdes, as administratrix of the estate, applied to the Probate Court to invest in the St. Louis Automotive Corporation. The corporation was formed in 1921, and was removed, and, when the estate was turned over to the succeeding administrator, it was found to consist chiefly of loans to the corporation.

His company was launched. Miss Goldstein testified that when the corporation was formed Neskov turned over to it his designs for the "St. Louis" automobile and two completed cars, worth $3500 each, in exchange for the $500,000 capital stock. Of this he turned $200,000 stock back to the corporation as treasury stock. He sold shares from the remainder, and turned in money so received as loans to the corporation.

Miss Goldstein testified from the books of the corporation, which were produced without court order. She said, when questioned by the defense's attorney, Ray Weinberger, that she was an employee, and not an officer of the corporation.

Mrs. Gilham said when she was elected treasurer she asked where the money was and was told there wasn't any. She holds $1000 stock. "I haven't seen any money yet, and have no reason to believe the corporation had any," she said.

Neskov said the property at the company's plant, 2127 Locust street, which was sold by the Sheriff last April to satisfy a garnishment on a personal debt of Neskov, belonged, with the exception of $1000 machinery, to the now insolvent Neskov-Mumperow Motor Car Co., and he had simply permitted the other corporation to use it.

Tells of Annual Meeting.
He told of an annual stockholders' meeting attended by Mayor Kiel, Circuit Judges, Robert E. Lee and other automobile men. "They all said, 'We're with you, John. Go ahead.' We went."

He said that at a later meeting he told stockholders they were beneficiary of his $25,000 insurance policy, and remarked with a wry smile, "Boy, oh, boy, I wish they'd killed me then." He said he explained every phase and transaction of the corporation. "Everybody understood it and nobody's crying for it today—that is, among the stockholders." Commissioner Butler, after hearing Miss Goldstein's testimony Tuesday, expressed some anxiety as to where he was going to get his fee, and was told that five mortgages "St. Louis" automobiles were held in storage. Closing his testimony yesterday, Neskov said to the plaintiff's attorney, "Everything went in salaries and those automobiles. Now you've got 'em."

Motorist Takes Boy Home, Then Drives Away—Father Gives Description of Him.

Police have been asked to find the driver of an automobile that ran down Edward Schneiderhan, 14 years old, of 2220 Indiana avenue, as he alighted from a southbound Jefferson car at Ann avenue at 8 p. m. yesterday. After the accident the man stopped, put the boy in the machine and drove to the lad's home, where he told him to get out, and then drove away. The boy was injured about the legs. Leo Schneiderhan, his father, gave policemen a description of the driver.
John Flynn, 54 years old, of 3512 Caroline street, reported to the police yesterday that he suffered internal injuries and was cut on head and body Aug. 16 when hit by a machine at Grand boulevard and Chouteau avenue. The man driving the car took Flynn to the city hospital and then home, but did not give his name or address.

Sues Cab Company for $7500.
Miss Genevra San Souci, 17 years old, yesterday filed suit against the Yellow Motor Car Co. for $7500 damages for injury suffered when she was struck in the face by a missile thrown into a Yellow taxicab last April. The plaintiff was a passenger riding to her home on Maryland avenue from the McKinley High School. At the time of the occurrence a chauffeurs' strike was in progress and the defendant, it is alleged, had knowledge it was unsafe for passengers to ride in its cabs during progress of the strike. The suit was settled a few days ago. The plaintiff states that Miss San Souci suffered concussion of the brain.

H. R. MATHEWS, before he died, had the foresight to leave his money in trust for his wife, and by the terms of his will, we pay his widow a monthly income. The money in our care is out of reach of the get-rich-quick promoter and the distant relatives for whom it never was meant. Mrs. Kate Mathews gets her check regularly each month, and will as long as she lives.

Trust Department

J. B. MORRISON owns a lot of securities, and we take the place of his private secretary. His stocks, bonds, mortgages, etc., are in our care, and we not only keep them safely, but collect all interest and maturing investments, and re-invest the money or credit it to his checking account, according to instructions.

He can decide to go to New York at 3 p. m., catch the 6 o'clock train, and stay a month without giving a thought to any detail in connection with his many holdings.

Corporation Department

THE financial service requirements of J. B. Morrison, capitalist, and Mrs. Bush, widow, differ widely. Fred Wheeler, expert golfer, and Pete Tomasso, fruit merchant, haven't much in common. But they all meet under our roof, and all get the kind of service they want.

Here is a brief outline of some of the ways they use the Mercantile. It may profit you to learn how we help them to profit.

President

THERE was a time when Pete Tomasso was "afraid of banks," and kept his money hidden away. Someone found it, though, as usual. In this case it was his young son, who was found playing with the "pretty green papers" in the back yard. The size of our building inspired confidence, and Pete brought the money to us. It's earning interest now, and no one can play with it—or spend it—but Pete.

Savings Department

HARRY W. BURNS owns real estate that used to bring in poor returns principally because his business took him away from the city for long periods, and he couldn't give his property the attention it demanded.

Things are different since he placed his property in our care. It's yielding the maximum return now, and all he has to do is read a statement and deposit a check to his credit each month.

Real Estate Department

FRED WHEELER is a golfer of note, and owns a lot of medals and cups. Before leaving for his round of the tournaments this year he came in and left all of his cups in our Storage Vaults and his medals in a Safe Deposit Box. This is only one of the many uses made of this department, which is the largest in the United States.

Safe Deposit Dept.

BILLIE BIRCHER has a Christmas Club account, in which he deposits 25 cents every week. Billie believes in Santa Claus, but he believes in Safety First, too, so he's going to have some real money next December—and make sure of a Merry Christmas.

Savings Department

MRS. MARY BUSH is a widow, working to earn her living. Her husband left some insurance, which she invested in Real Estate Notes, sometimes called "the widow's investment" because of their safety. Now, when her savings reach $500 she buys another note. The notes she owns pay her an average income of $60 a month.

Real Estate Loan Department

ARTHUR P. LONG is one of our best customers. He started 15 years ago with a savings account. His financial requirements grew, and we supplied the service.

Today the credit line at his disposal is helping him to make more money, he invests his surplus through us, keeps his securities in a Safe Deposit box, and we have him. Will on file. He is deriving full benefit from "Mercantile Service."

Banking Department

MR. AND MRS. PATRICK O'HARA are coupon clippers. Pat worked hard in days gone by, and the pair of them managed to put by enough to keep the home fires burning indefinitely. With about 140 years of experience between them, they have learned that safety is the thing to look for when investing money. Long ago they picked the Mercantile as a safe place to buy bonds.

Bond Department

UNDERWOOD & SON make the Mercantile a partner in their business. We are a silent partner, it is true, acting in an advisory capacity, but when they come in with a business problem and ask our advice, we are not silent.

Underwood, Sr., started in business about the same time we did. We served him, we serve his son, and perhaps, in days to come, we shall serve his son's son.

Banking Department

MARIE LILBURN has a Mercantile savings account, and some day it's going to be big enough to provide her an independent income, or else—come in mighty handy when it's time for her to buy a trousseau. Marie's thoughts aren't very definite along those lines right now, but she knows she can't lose by saving a little every day.

Speaking of Modern Cave Men, We Note That Flint Hammer Is the Champion Javelin Thrower

Dempsey's Failure to Stop Gibbons

Influencing Odds on Firpo Bout

Professional Layers Advise Delay to See What the Fighters Show in Training — Big Question Is Whether Champion Was Really Trying for a Knockout at Shelby.

By Fair Play.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—While considerable betting talk concerning the Dempsey-Firpo bout has been heard in the past week, the writer is in a position to say that the big layers have not yet decided what they will do. Men whose opinion prevailing odds—that is odds as they prevail the day before a battle—are based, have been at Saratoga and at Atlantic City, and in the case of both fighters the report has come—"lay off a while."

There is more certainty about Dempsey than about Firpo, and yet it is unquestionable that the light betting that the champ did against Tommy Gibbons has affected the opinion of the big gamblers. Did Jack Kearns have stated to friends, play a fox game with Gibbons, content to win a decision with a knockout? Or was he doing his best?

The writer, who saw the battle, believes Dempsey was trying for a knockout, but was unable to send the good-night punch home because of Gibbons' cleverness and his own restlessness, due to long absence from boxing. Kearns says privately, that Gibbons was worth a million to Dempsey and maybe this will prove to be the case. All the writer can say is that coming down on the odds from Shelby with Dempsey after the fight the champ gave no indication whatever that he was working over his poor hitting.

At Saratoga, to date, Jack has been handicapped by a very severe cold, and this has resulted in disappointing exhibitions, ending with a complete cessation of work. As a consequence shrewd emissaries of the gamblers have had nothing left to go upon, and hence their advice to wait a while before putting up the big money.

Firpo Has the Punch.
As for Firpo, inside reports show that he has proved hardly less disappointing than Dempsey. His work has been mild, and his training system, based on cabled advice from Buenos Aires, is not highly regarded by American conditioners. His use of the left hand has interested observers. He certainly knows how to jab and he can pick off punches waiting at his head by his offensive partner. Offensively he has been pulling his blows since he reached Atlantic City, a fact, now, which is deluding no one into believing that he cannot hit. But speed in hitting is a great necessity in a ring battle, and the time is coming when he must begin to unhook something flashy and hard if he is to figure respectably in the forthcoming odds.

DEMPEY AND FIRPO ARE NATURAL FIGHTERS, EACH WITH STYLE ALL HIS OWN

United States and Australia Tied in Davis Cup Series

Play Which Starts Tomorrow at Forest Hills Will Conclude 18th Competition.

By Davison Obeart.
Australia and the United States are tied in the number of victories won in the International tennis matches for the Davis Cup. Since the first contest in 1900 each nation has won six challenge matches. The British Isles players have captured a total of five.

The tie will be broken when the teams of Australia and the United States battle in the challenge round at Forest Hills, N. Y. starting tomorrow afternoon. This will conclude the eighteenth competition for the Davis Cup, presented by Dwight F. Davis of this city.

Six players of three nations stand out as leaders in the international competition. They are as follows: Norman E. Brookes and the late Anthony F. Wilding, Australia; William M. Johnston, William A. Larned and William T. Tilden, United States and the late Hugh Lawrence Doherty, British Isles.

The record of these men in the Davis Cup matches is as follows:
N. E. Brookes, played 39, won 28, lost 11.
Anthony F. Wilding, played 29, won 20, lost 9.
William A. Larned, played 15, won 10, lost 5.
Hugh L. Doherty, played 13, won 13, lost 0.
William T. Tilden, played 11, won 10, lost 1.
William M. Johnston, played 10, won 10, lost 0.

To equal the record made by Doherty, the British Isles player, it is necessary for Johnston to win three matches. If he plays in the doubles this year and wins together with the two singles contests he will equal the record. Up to the present time Norman E. Brookes may easily be termed the greatest of all Davis Cup players. He has participated in more matches than any other player and won 71 per cent of the total.

Starting in 1900 with two nations, the British Isles and the United States, the competition has grown during the past 23 years until 17 countries entered the 1923 play. Fifteen of this number fought for the right to meet the United States player at Forest Hills, N. Y. tomorrow while the sixteenth nation, Rumania, defaulted to Spain in the first round.

It is interesting to note that a total of 31 countries have been represented in Davis Cup matches at one time or another since 1900. No less than 125 players have competed in the various matches while a few more have been named on teams but did not actually take part.

BRADLEY MAY TRY FOR PLACE ON OLYMPIC TEAM
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
PONCA CITY, Aug. 29.—Everett Bradley, the greatest all-round athlete Oklahoma has ever produced with the possible exception of "Jim" Thorpe, the Sac and Fox Indian, may re-enter athletic training in order to compete again in the Olympic games next year at Paris, France. Bradley, who is a native of Cherokee, Ok., won his athletic honors while a student at the Kansas University at Lawrence, where he graduated in June, 1922.

He is a representative of the Kansas University he participated in the Olympic games in 1920 and won second place as a world champion over representatives from many countries. He continued in athletics at Lawrence until his graduation and has since been in business.

"If Bradley takes up athletics again in order to participate at Paris, it will be as a representative of some well-known athletic club. He admits that he has been imported many times recently to get back into the game and a number of clubs have solicited him as a member.

National A. A. U. Meet at Chicago Opens Tomorrow

Mile Run, 100-Yard Dash, High Jump and Decathlon Are Feature Events.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Four events will hold the center of interest when 200 picked athletes from all parts of the country meet here Friday, Saturday and Labor day at the National A. A. U. meet at Stagg Field. They are the 100-yard dash, the mile run, the high jump and the decathlon.

In the century Elbert Washington, a freshman at the University of Chicago, said to be one of the fastest sprinters of recent years, will show his speed in a national meet for the first time. The colored flash, who has broken 10 seconds on virtually every trial in the last six months, according to Tom Eck, coach at the local university, stands a good chance of lowering the record of .09 4-5 made by Charles Paddock, but will have to outrun some stiff competition, including Loren Murchison of the New York A. C., famous dash man and holder of many records.

In the mile run, Jole Ray, Ray Watson, Ray Baker and Egil Krogh, members of the relay match which recently broke the world's record in the four-mile, will compete to see which is the greatest. Each has triumphed over the other three at some time, but Ray is accorded the best chance of coping the ribbon, having done so seven times and having made the record of 4:14 2-5. Besides his three Illinois A. C. teammates, Ray must match Jimmy Connolly of Boston, who has made some excellent time in Eastern events.

Last year Harold Osborne of the Illinois A. C. and D. Alberts of the Chicago A. C. tied in the high jump and together established a new record of 6 feet 7 inches. This year they will meet to decide their prowess, and a new record probably will be established. However, a third entry, Richard Landon of New York A. C., may wreck the banner away from both, as he has made some remarkable jumps in the East.

The other event of outstanding interest is the decathlon. The entry list for this year is large, but Harold Osborne, who last year brought honors to the University of Illinois; R. H. Hargrave, a deaf and dumb youth, carrying the colors of the Illinois A. C.; C. L. Beares of the Pittsburgh A. C.; C. R. Watson of the Seattle police force and A. Roseman, former Notre Dame athlete and now unattached, are favored to rank high among the winners.

CHICAGO PROMOTERS ARE SUED FOR $50,000 BY AMERICAN LEGION POST
CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Practically in a $50,000 damage suit against Harry D. Koffman, promoter of the scheduled boxing show at the Hawthorne race track, the main event of which was cancelled Friday when the money promised the fighters was not forthcoming, was filed yesterday in Circuit Court on behalf of the St. Louis Post of the American Legion.

According to the attorney for the post, Koffman had a contract with the Legion post to finance and manage the affair, but departed with the proceeds, leaving numerous bills unpaid after the proceeds had been counted and it was found that there was not enough money to pay the expenses.

Two thousand boxing fans present to witness the main event between George Godfrey, negro sparring partner of Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, and Clem Johnson, who asserts he is "champion of Mexico," departed in disgust when the bout was called off after it was found that the gate receipts were gone from the box office.

Neither Koffman nor Fred "Frenchy" Mader, deceased head of the Chicago Building Trades Council, who was reported to have been associated with Koffman in promoting the fight, could be found today.

MICKEY O'DOWD FIGHTS GOOSEMAN ON LABOR DAY
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Dick Curley, matchmaker of the Oswego arena, Chicago, Ind., has arranged a good card for his club for Labor day evening.

In the main attraction of 16 rounds, Mickey O'Dowd, the crack Muncie (Ind.) featherweight, will meet Ernie Gooseman of California. These boys are the best of their class in the 126-pound division and are expected to provide a sensational scrap.

O'Dowd appears to be one of the most promising featherweights on the pugilistic horizon. He is fast and clever and his punch is punishing. He is the only boxer who has scored a knockout over Johnny Murphy, a feat that is highly commendable. Then, too, he has whipped Willie Ames of Akron, Johnny Schmalzer of Milwaukee, Pete "Red" McDonald and a host of others. In 54 contests O'Dowd has never met with a single reverse.

Mickey Forkins, Chicago's North Side welterweight, makes his first start in two months against George Verner in an added 10-round bout. Mickey is the only boxer to decisively whip Jimmy Jones of Youngtown, recently appointed New York State welterweight champion. Larney Lichtenstein, manager of Forkins, intends to post a $2500 certified check with the New York State Boxing Commission binding a match for the title with the champion.

Indians Buy Outfielder.
OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 30.—Kenneth Hogan, center fielder for the Grand Island club of the Nebraska State League, has been sold to the Cleveland Americans. Dick Grotte, president of the league, announced today. Hogan, who is rated as one of the best fielders and hitters in the State circuit, will report at the end of the season, Sept. 3.

How did your garters

Most of us fail to get new garters when they are needed.
We forget because the old ones are not in sight to remind us.

TO ST. JOSEPH TO SPEAK ON AIR RACES HERE

Mr. C. Rauschkoeb makes trip in plane flown by Maj. William B.
Robertson.

Mr. C. Rauschkoeb of the St. Louis office of Commerce went to St.
Joseph, Mo., yesterday in an airplane piloted by Maj. William B. Robertson.

to speak at the Pony Express celebration there in behalf of the international air races, which will be held at St. Louis Oct. 1, 2 and 3. On return trip he plans to stop at St. Joseph, Mo., for a speech at the Fair. Other planes with speakers who will tell of the air races will go out at intervals to towns within a radius of 300 miles of St.
Louis during the next month.

Capt. Joseph P. Read and Sam Hickman, who were flying an airplane loaned to the Pony Express by the Curtiss company for promotional purposes, from Dallas, Tex., were forced down by engine trouble yesterday, near St. Joseph.
They came on by train and the pilot will be sent to bring in the plane as soon as necessary repairs have been made.

E. H. Smith, president of the New Central Lines, and Robert E.
Carr, vice president of the American Railway Express Co., yesterday notified B. F. Bush, director-general of the St. Louis Air Board, that they expected to attend the race.
A score of other men, equally prominent in business and the professions, also have made reservations for the races and Air Congress.

TONNAGE ON BARGE TONNAGE

Amount Total on U. S. River Lane to Exceed 80,000.

Tonnage carried by the Government barge line this month will be in excess of 80,000 tons, the second only to the tonnage 70 tons, 18,000 tons, and more than 100 tons above the previous record, at May.

Last month's tonnage was considerably below the record. Toward the end of the month, however, work began to move, although sugar did not, and this, with considerable activity in all lines of merchandise, bolstered this month's shipping.

Run Over by Auto He Cranked.

Patrolman George Julka, 37 years old, of 8601 North Broadway, attached to the Laclede Avenue Division, is in city hospital in a serious condition as a result of his attempt to start his automobile while in gear.
In his way home early today he went to Leffingwell avenue and Washington street, where he was parked the car. He cranked it and it ran over him. Elmer J. Miller, 4024 Scanlan place, who was waiting at the time, stopped the car and returned for Julka, taking him to the city hospital, where it was found his skull was fractured and his legs and back were bruised.

Home Here to $15,000 Here.

Samuel J. Cleary, a Chicago lawyer, is at Hotel Jefferson, searching for Mrs. Rosey Hansen and a Mrs.
Minard of St. Louis, who are beneficiaries in the $15,000 estate of Wilson Hamilton, formerly of St. Louis, who died in Chicago last March. It appears that Hamilton was reared by the parents of Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Minard, who are sisters. Cleary has been here several days and has been unable to locate them. He last visited Hamilton in Chicago four years ago.

HEALTHY GUMS MEAN A PRETTIER MOUTH

Poor, Enemy of Beautiful Teeth, Can Now Be Checked.

You can never have beautiful teeth or a pretty mouth unless you have healthy gums. Four persons out of every five, over thirty-five, have pyorrhea. If your gums are tender and bleed easily, you are probably afflicted with this dread disease. Pyorrhea causes the gums to recede, making the teeth unsightly.

A bottle of Moore's Pyorrhea Remedy, which you can get at any drug store, will stop the destructive work of pyorrhea. You will notice a soothing of the irritated gums after the first application. The gums soon become firm and pink and the teeth take on a new lustre and whiteness. Follow this treatment by using Moore's Tooth Paste. It will keep the gums healthy.

If this remedy does not give satisfaction, your druggist is authorized to refund your money. Use it on this basis, but accept no substitute.

GOT THREATS INSTEAD OF PRIZE, LOTTERY WINNERS COMPLAIN

Man Arrested on Charge of Selling Tickets Based on Temperature Readings.

William L. Bachmann, 49 years old, of 419 N. Twenty-second street, was arrested yesterday on charge of selling lottery tickets on complaint of the city. The complainant is Louis Walters, 2613 Cass avenue, and Charles E. King, 3243A Pennsylvania avenue, employees of an electric company where Bachmann operated an elevator.

Walters said he bought a ticket from Bachmann, the number on which was to correspond with the temperature on a certain day, and that the weather was so favorable that his ticket called for $1100. He gave the ticket to Bachmann, he said, and Bachmann gave it to another man, who took him to a barber shop on Gravois avenue. A third man there said the ticket was counterfeit, and when Walters protested that he wanted his $1100, was threatened with a beating. King had a similar experience.

Bachmann declined to make a statement.

ACUTE DILATATION OF HEART CAUSED GIRL'S DEATH IN POOL

Autopsy Shows That Genevieve Linder Did Not Drown in Gymnasium Tank.

A coroner's verdict of accident was returned today in the case of Genevieve Linder, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Linder, 1478 Rowan avenue, who died at 8:45 p. m. yesterday in the swimming pool in the gymnasium of the parish school of St. Mark's Catholic Church, Academy avenue, between Page and Minerva avenues. The autopsy showed acute dilatation of the heart.

Marie Krallman of 1408 Rowan avenue, who accompanied Genevieve to the pool, testified that she threw water wings to her companion when the latter suddenly shouted for help but that Genevieve, who was a good swimmer, went down into six feet of water, landing on her back at the bottom.

A physician furnished by the Fire Department was used by doctors in an effort to revive Genevieve after her body had been taken from the water by J. A. Keough of 1869 University avenue, a St. Louis University student, and the Rev. Father R. E. McKeown, assistant pastor at St. Mark's.

WHAT THE AMERICAN TOURISTS SEE AT DEAUVILLE

The great French resort has had its greatest season this year with the flood of wealthy Americans, eager to spend their money, that has come upon it. (1) Cornuche, the former Paris dishwasher and headwaiter, who now controls the Casino, the big gambling place as well as the principal hotel, and is known as "the uncrowned King of Deauville," having his apéritif with friends. He is the man with two fingers up calling for something—what do you think? (2) The big winner at this Casino this year, Puccinello, a Parisian, who won 800,000 francs (normally $160,000) in a half-hour's sitting at the Casino, takes his swim with Peggy Marsh of the stage.

AND IT WASN'T MOVING DAY, EITHER.

IN Kentucky, in the old days, we had for the Chief Justice of our highest court a gallant old Confederate cavalryman. This gentleman was learned in the law but otherwise simplicity itself. He divided his time between Frankfort, the capital, and the little town where he had been born and reared. Until he was nearly 70 years old he had been north of the Ohio River but once in his life. And that was when he rode with Morgan's raiders.

After his retirement from the bench he decided to see something of the world. He got on the train and went to New York. Arriving late at night he lodged at the old Fifth Avenue Hotel. Arriving early the next morning he set out for a walk in the great city, going south on Broadway. After a while he came to Canal street, then, as now, one of the busiest cross-town arteries and likewise the widest river-to-river street in lower Manhattan. Here, for a space, the old Judge stood on the edge of the curbing watching the quadrupled lines of vehicular traffic that passed him east and west. As far as he could see in either direction there was no end to the interweaving canals of loaded trucks and wagons and vans and delivery cars.

At length he made his way to where a policeman stood in the middle of the roadway directing travel.

"Excuse me, sub," inquired the visitor, in his rich Southern accent, "but sir you connected with the city government here?"

"I'm a policeman. If that's what you mean," answered the bluecoat.

"So I judged from your costume and deportment," said the venerable Kentuckian.

"Anything I can do for you?" inquired the officer, stirred to special attentiveness by the courteous manners of the stranger.

"No, son, I reckon not," said the Judge, benignantly, "but if it's not too much trouble I would like to ask you a question."

"Go ahead with the question."

"Well, sub," prefaced the Judge, "you boys suttinly have got a lovely city here—I'll say that much. But tell me, son, haven't you got powerfully behind with your hauling, some way?"

Coal Miners' Reply to Governor Says His Proposals
Are Basis for Continuing Negotiations.

OPERATORS' STAND
IS CONDITIONAL

Want Agreement Putting Proposal in Effect for Long Period; Say 8-Hour Day
Will Cost $2,250,000.

By the Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 21.—A thrilling race between coal operators and mine union officials today returned to the Governor Pinchot's proposals for ending mine suspension at midnight, miners accepting them as a basis for continuing negotiation and the operators, while objecting to the flat 10 per cent wage increase, accepting on condition that an agreement putting into effect over a long term be effected.

The proposed 10 per cent increase in wages which the Governor offered, the union answer found to be unsatisfactory. It reiterated the demand for "check off" collection of union dues.

No assurance was given that the union would withdraw the suspension order, which takes effect midnight today, but the union declared to be ready to go again into joint conference with the operators on the Governor's proposal.

Operators, while declaring they were in agreement with the Governor's proposal on three points, a-serted that "no general increase in wages of anthracite mine workers at this time is justified."

Arguing against the Governor's plan for a 10 per cent wage increase, the union said it would add $1 a week a year more to the wages of the industry, and that the favorable consideration of it by must be conditioned upon a durable agreement covering a period of years with a provision for annual revision.

On all points except the 10 per cent flat increase, Gov. Pinchot agreed, the joint answers from the groups in the industry indicated degrees of satisfaction, though union again asked that the Governor add the operators demanded the union abandon this and all other demands in consideration of the long term wage agreement.

Arbitration Plan Criticized.
While the union answer criticized Gov. Pinchot's suggestion of arbitration arrangements in working out application of his settlement, it said in general that his plan "had paved the way to a resolution of joint wage negotiations between the anthracite operators and the representatives of the mine workers."

The grant of the eight-hour day was said, the operators had already made in provisional fashion.
While the 10 per cent wage increase was said to be "a step in the direction" for contract miners, it was declared also insufficient for their needs. For the 65 per cent employees in anthracite mines, perhaps the day, the percentage of increase was declared to accentuate inequalities in rates with contractors a source of bitter complaint among the men affected.

Increase in cents per day for workers equivalent to that suggested for contract miners was asked for.
Expressing regret for the refusal of the Governor to offer the "check off" system of dues collection, the union response said this "would be in any manner add to the cost of a contract," that "for a quarter of century this arrangement has been in operation in anthracite districts in Pennsylvania and that collective bargaining is recognized that some of the anthracite companies having bituminous operations in other States have adopted it."

With the recommendation of the Governor that collective bargaining be recognized, and that the anthracite board of conciliation be revised to make a complete revision of wages possible, the union answer expressed satisfaction.

The consideration of these several points, including the remaining number of the 11 demands of the United Mine Workers, the response concluded, "we feel your action has paved the way to a resumption of negotiations between the anthracite operators and the representatives of mine workers."

The operators' answer gave qualified acceptance to the union plan for installing the eight-hour day though it was estimated to add $1 to $2,000 per year to coal-mining costs.
